Telegraph.
Near Columbia, Sunday, November 6.—Garibaldi concentrated around Monte Rotonda, and was urged to withdraw. Garibaldi replied, that he did not value his life, and a soldier should not count his enemies. The deputation replied, that a General should count the enemy and withdraw. Garibaldi, with 3,000 men, and two guns, moved towards Trivoli, which the Papals had stormed, unconscious of the disaster at Trivoli. The Garibaldians, while marching to patriotic songs, were surprised at Trivoli by seven Papal battalions, with seven guns, who attacked both sides and both flanks. The fighting was fierce. Garibaldi was dragged away. The retreating Garibaldians made two hours' fight at Monte Rotonda, and fled, after 900 were killed and 1,900 captured. Menotti was hurt in the leg. At the frontier, the Garibaldians gave up everything but private property. Garibaldi looks old, haggard, broken and disappointed. The insurrection is over. The French took no part, except a few, as volunteers.

CARLISLE, Monday, November 4.—The road between here and Corosa, is crowded with disarmed Garibaldians—their defeat is complete, and their best men killed.

ZENES, Monday, November 4.—The wounded are arriving. The Italian Regulars are kind to them, and keep like women, while carrying them from the cars to the hospital.

FLORENCE, Tuesday, November 5.—The English Ambassador asks the King to treat Garibaldi leniently. No collisions between the French and Italians. Italy is quiet. It is rumored that Garibaldi is insane.

PARIS, November 6.—The Emperor of Austria has departed homeward.

FLORENCE, November 6.—The Garibaldians lost 450 killed, and 900 prisoners, in the last battles; wounded not counted. The Papal loss was 200 killed and wounded.

Election Returns.
WASHINGTON, November 6.—New York.—The Legislature is Democratic, on joint ballot, with a probable majority in the Senate.
The Tribune estimates the New York Legislature as 18 Republicans and 14 Democrats; Assembly Republicans 71; Democrats 51; acknowledges that the returns are meagre, but says there is no doubt there will be a Republican majority.
NEW JERSEY.—The Legislature is Democratic in both branches.
KANSAS.—Both negro and female suffrage were defeated by 8,000 or 10,000.
WISCONSIN.—Later accounts indicate Fairchild's election by a reduced majority, but a decidedly Republican Legislature.
MINNESOTA.—Negro suffrage defeated. William Marshall, probably, Governor, by a small majority.
BOSTON, November 6.—John Quincy Adams, though not elected Governor, is elected Representative. The Legislature is overwhelmingly for license.
10 P. M.—A Democratic majority, on joint ballot, in the New York Legislature, is almost certain—this will give Seymour the Senatorship. Jas. B. McCormick (Democrat) succeeds Noel in the House from Missouri. Barley (Republican) succeeds Roscoe in Congress from New York. The Wisconsin Legislature is Republican. All the Tammany candidates are elected in the city of New York. Morrissey won $20,000 by the election of O'Brien, as Sheriff of New York, by 800 majority.

The Board of Health pays a high and deserved compliment to the Howard Association, saying their success has been wonderful. Six internments yesterday.
MONTGOMERY, ALA., November 6.—The Reconstruction Convention has passed resolutions authorizing the raising of proper standing committees, and to memorialize Congress to remove political disabilities from all who materially aided reconstruction. The State constitution will probably be modeled after the Vermont constitution.

IT is a valuable compound of Roots and Gums, discovered and prepared on pharmaceutical principles by a practical chemist. It is found, upon trial of more than 2,000 cases, to be the only sure blood purifier, and will cure all those inveterate and stubborn diseases which arise from impurity of the blood; and whilst it does this, it exerts a powerful influence over the whole system, invigorating and restoring the weak and crippled organs of the body to healthy action.
